

Biography

Name:

Sa Kil Kim from Korea.

Formal Background/Education:

Get human factors engineering degree from Kyung Hee University in Korea.

Work Experience:

Have worked for Korea Atomic Energy Research Institute as a senior researcher from 2009 to now.

Have experience to design a small modular reactor, SMART, in Korea.

Performing various project related with human factors in nuclear industry now.

Especially organizational safety is my recent concerns.

My Own Definition of Safety Culture:

Finally I think that safety culture is common awareness among members in the organization to improve plants safety firstly.