

Name: Mr. Ovidijus Šeštokas

Formal background/education: Master of Science in Physics, Master of Law.

Work experience: 16 years within the State Nuclear Power Safety Inspectorate (nuclear safety regulatory authority) of the Republic of Lithuania in different nuclear safety regulatory, licensing and project management positions, including responsibilities for regulatory activities covering the areas of quality management, personnel management and safety culture.

Personal definition of safety culture: Collection of the attitudes, beliefs, perceptions, values and behavioral elements of employees and the whole organization that leads to and accumulates appropriate attention and concern to the safety related issues within the organization.