Overview of Code of Conduct Code of Conduct on the Safety and Security of Radioactive Sources

2022

Ensuring the Safety and Security of Radioactive Sources

During the Pandemic

5 Virtual Meetings on the Implementation of the Guidance on the Management of Disused Radioactive Sources

European Regional Meeting
78 Experts from 40 Member States

African Regional Meeting
60 Experts from 27 Member States

Asia and Pacific Regional Meeting
55 Experts from 21 Member States

The Americas Regional Meeting
69 Experts from 25 Member States

Open-ended Technical Meeting of Legal and Technical Experts
247 Experts from 100 Member States

Survey on Implementation of the Guidance
92 Member States Responded

Over the years...

34 Meetings to share Code of Conduct implementation experiences since early 2000

2300 Experts have attended regional, interregional and Open-ended meetings

150 States
have shared experience in implementing the Code of Conduct and supplementary Guidance

Over 20 years
of Member State support to enhance the safety and security of radioactive sources

143 States
have made a political commitment to the Code of Conduct on the Safety and Security of Radioactive Sources

126 States
have made a political commitment to the Guidance on the Import and Export of Radioactive Sources

148 States
have designated a Contact Point

48 States
have made a political commitment to the Guidance on the Management of Disused Radioactive Sources

107 States
have responded to the Questionnaire

126 States
have made a political commitment to the Code of Conduct on the Safety and Security of Radioactive Sources

Over 20 years
of Member State support to enhance the safety and security of radioactive sources

IAEA
International Atomic Energy Agency

Survey on Implementation of the Guidance
92 Member States Responded

Over 20 years
of Member State support to enhance the safety and security of radioactive sources