

Examples of Criteria Comparatively Analyzed for a Project / Program Justification

Capacity to manage different kind of waste

Generation of new waste

Need for future actions and for management facility development in the middle to long term

Number of waste management facility required

Feasibility / technical maturity

Capacity to retrieve/recover the waste

Capacity to be flexible, adaptable and progressively developed and upgraded

Environmental impact of construction

Environmental impact of operations and dismantling

Environmental impact over the long term

Impact on transports / industrial / commercial activities and local development

Potential impact on human health in case of accident

Risks and safety over the long term

Sustainability