

Title: Expert Mission to review the current status of the Regulatory Infrastructure for Safety in Nigeria

Location: Abuja, Nigeria

Dates of Mission: 10 - 13 September 2012

Objectives:

The expert mission was conducted to review the current status of the regulatory infrastructure for safety of nuclear power plant in Nigeria and to make awareness on the IAEA safety standards with respect to the following topics:

- ☐ Leadership and Management for Safety for the regulatory body;
- ☐ Core regulatory activities with special reference to Licensing process during design and construction stages of Nuclear power plant;
- ☐ Human Recourse Management for capacity building of the Regulatory Body for the safety of nuclear power plant.

Duties performed:

The experts, IAEA staff officer, and the counterparts conducted this expert mission according to the programme of activities outlined in the agenda

Conclusions:

The objectives were met.