

Title: National Workshop on the Development of the Regulatory Framework

Location: Malaysia, Kuala Lumpur

Dates of Mission: 2012-10-30 to 2012-11-02

Objective:

To provide information, together with the other experts, on issues and key aspects of establishment of an effective regulatory framework for the introduction of a nuclear power programme, main functions and responsibilities of an nuclear regulatory body, relevant IAEA Safety Standards and implementation of main regulatory functions in Pakistan and the UK.

Duties performed:

Comprehensive information regarding the main regulatory functions, which is based on the relevant IAEA safety standards and practical examples from UK and Pakistan, were provided to the participants during the mission.

Conclusions:

Audience participants were acquainted with considerations, issues and key aspects of establishment of an effective regulatory framework for safe implementation of a nuclear power programme, main functions and responsibilities of a nuclear regulatory body, relevant IAEA Safety Standards and implementation of main regulatory functions in Pakistan and the UK.

The event was carried out with funding by the European Union